

IT IS SAID THAT FATE, UNLIKE LIGHTNING, CAN STRIKE TWICE! CAPTAIN FRED C. SEALS, JR., OF DALLAS, TEXAS, LEARNED THE ANSWER DURING A TURBULENT COMBAT CARGO DROP TO A FIFTH AIR FORCE RADAR GROUND UNIT IN THE MOUNTAINS OF KOREA!

CAPTAIN SEALS WAS HELPING DROP 300 LB. CLUSTERS OF WATER CANS WHEN A SUDDEN AIR CURRENT SENT THE C-46 INTO A DIVE OVER THE DROP ZONE...

YEOW! WE'RE FALLING! HOLD ON, CAPTAIN!

CAPTAIN!

HELP!

YEEAAHH!

SEALS WAS SUDDENLY PLUCKED FROM THE PLANE... AS IF BY A GIANT HAND...

SEALS FOUND HIMSELF IN SPACE, FRANTICALLY GRIPPING FOR HIS CHUTE...

WHA-?

THAT WAS TRULY AN AMAZING EXPERIENCE, CAPTAIN!

AND HOW! I GUESS MY NUMBER JUST WASN'T UP!
